

16th October 2014.

The following 5 pages are just a short collection of evidence in support of this exposé about the serial abuser-stalker-criminal Paul Collins and his loathsome activities. One female victim speaks out here in a personal letter to the Irish Courts. (Some detail has been omitted to respect the wishes of the author and for legal reasons).

To Whom this may concern

I, [REDACTED] and my husband [REDACTED] have been the victims of a plot to take possession of our property known as BlackHall House Stud at Bannow County Wexford.

Paul Collins secured a deal with our agent [REDACTED] when he paid him €20,000 in cash plus his fee of $1200.00 in cash for a 2 year lease agreement, starting 1/10/11 with the property to remain on the market with the agents [REDACTED] while he rented the property.

However we were NEVER allowed access to the property once he moved in and he engaged a security firm, dogs, surveillance cameras and whatever means imaginable included the police to ensure we never again got access to our property which we paid €980,000 for this property in 2007 and we hold a mortgage with KBC Bank. Paul Collins told everyone he met that he had purchased the property and got many people in the area including [REDACTED] to do work for him, but had no intention of paying anybody. He owes [REDACTED] 3600.00. The neighbours made several complains about the activities going on behind locked gates and high walls, but unfortunately the noise and unusual behaviour has continued to this day with no answers as to what is going on.

He threatened to have my husband arrested, which he succeeded in doing when he made false accusations against him while he was back in Ireland on holiday in 2012. He made 100's of phone calls to my phone always in the middle of the night with heavy breathing and threatening behaviour, these events were reported to Garda [REDACTED] and while it took police 2 years, they finally secured a result pinning the phone calls to a phone registered to Paul Collins of Blackhall House in Bannow.

A case is now being prepared by the DPP.

Things got so bad and I got so afraid when getting these calls and all the verbal abuse and treats I had received from Paul Collins, I felt I could no longer protect my children and made the decision based on FEAR that I needed to leave my home, my family and my native country because a man from Glasgow was determined to get rid of me and take ownership of our property because he is a Bully and a coward. I had suffered a stroke and a nervous breakdown due to the pressure and treats I received from Paul Collins, so I left Ireland and went to live in Australia with my husband [REDACTED]

However I was only in Australia 2-3 months when he had tracked me down, forged a [REDACTED] false facebook page, he issued and contacted immigration, Australia police authority, the [REDACTED] Shire Irish Community, even posting our photos on the internet offering a reward for our address and phone numbers. He contacted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] also with a scheming story of lies and deception to try force them (our friends) to give him our address and phone numbers in Australia, he gave his name to them as Paul Collins an "Old Friend of Our who wants to surprise us by showing up at our house in Australia" they knew it was lies and did not give him the information.

Then he launched a verbal slaughter on them with curses and threatened them, they never heard anything like it. [REDACTED] answered him by saying,: " Well at least you are showing your true colours now, never contact me again" said to Paul Collins by [REDACTED] Director and Chief of [REDACTED] Shire Irish Community.

The facebook verbal abuse continued which written treats and other stuff continuing to pop up on our pages but we had him reported. We were being followed and he knew where we were all of the time "I will destroy your new life in Australia [redacted]" I know where you are it costs me a lot but I am having you followed.....

He also contacted my elderly mother, [redacted] with a deceitful story about needing to deliver her a package from me and would do so, if she gave him my address in Australia, He did the same to my daughter [redacted] who reported him to Garda Station in Duncannon, Garda then went to visit Collins and told him to never contact [redacted] or [redacted] again. He did the same to [redacted] [redacted] - [redacted]'s father and his 2 brothers, who were all wise enough to know it was Paul Collins lies and deception on the phone.

I really hope and pray that, though myself and [redacted] have been very reserved and have never pursued Paul Collins, and have left our situation in the hands of the police and the courts, we sincerely hope that one day we will get justice for what we have been through for over 3 years now

He rented the property in September 2011. Our lives have been hell ever since, even as I type this letter my hands are shaking and my heart is racing all because there is a BULLY called Paul Collins who thinks he is above the law and can get away with treating normal likeable people like us in a manner that is repulsive and disgraceful. He is a menace to society. He makes his living from his lies and bully ways. I am not the only victim there are several more. [redacted] in Freshford and Stephan Manning in Castlebar are two persons who have also been victims.

I feel sorry for anyone who has to deal with Paul Collins and I can only hope that when he is finished destroying our lives and moves on to the next victim that they will know the facts and have his record so they can make an informed judgement, because I was bulled and threatened in to allowing him in to my property and I would not wish this hell on anybody else.

I trust the justice system to do their job.

Sincerely Yours

£1000 bail set

PAUL COLLINS, 21, of Barnes Street, Barrhead, Glasgow, who was arrested driving a stolen car in London in February, was remanded for reports on £1000 bail until June 20 at Thames Magistrates Court, East London, yesterday. He admitted dishonestly handling the stolen car and driving it while disqualified and uninsured. He also admitted jumping bail.

Here (left) Paul Collins gets off to an early start in a criminal career that apparently spans 3 decades.

I-I researchers also have a 'Paul Collins' of the same age and location doing serious prison time in the UK, and being involved in drug smuggling. (We are waiting for confirmation that it is the same individual profiled here before posting that detail.)

On the following page, a 17-year old girl recounts her experiences with Paul Collins when she was aged just 14 years!

Here, a 17-year old girl recounts her unsettling experiences with Paul Collins when she was aged just 14 years!

Paul Collins frightens me to death, I cringe when I hear his name. Through the anonymous phone calls in which my mam received at night which have now been linked to Paul Collins, it made me terrified in my own home. I could not sleep at night while my mam was receiving these calls, I was petrified that he would turn up at our house especially with dad in Australia. I thought Paul Collins would see us as an easy target to get at dad. Even when we moved to the other side of the world it didn't stop. He threatened that he was going to get us deported from Australia, this unsettled me greatly. It showed me the length this man would go to, to get what he wants. Family friends in Australia then started to receive calls from Paul requesting our address. This too unsettled me as I too started to receive calls from an unknown number during the night. I'm not saying that these were from Paul Collins, but I could only think the worst as they were occurring around the same time. I couldn't understand why he wanted our address. When dad was arrested I thought that Paul Collins had succeeded in ripping our family apart. I think you would agree with when I say that I don't think any child should feel as unsafe in their own home as I did. I hope he is pleased with the traumatic experience he has put my family through. I will certainly never forget the things he has done to my parents.

Here, using another of his usual tactics, Paul Collins sets up a false facebook profile of this girl's father listing him as a homosexual and a 'retard'!

Similar pages were set up anonymously to attack Stephen Manning.

Here, Paul Collins creates another false 'young girl' fb profile in an attempt to entrap and abuse Stephen Manning. Several such profiles were created to try to create a false 'history' of Stephen's supposed 'connections' with dating websites and illegal pornographic content etc

Hi Emer..

I received a friend request from you Emer - and we seem to have a few friends in common.. But I don't recall meeting you before. Can you clarify please? Thanks.

Stephen

Hi Stephen,

We do have some friends in common and it was through them that I was pointed in the direction of your website where I read with much interest some of your literature.

I was also impressed with the stand you have taken against the wrong doing of some publishing companies, I admire anyone who defends honesty and integrity. I also noticed that you live in Ireland and my mother's sister lives in Tuam which is quite near Galway where I hope to go to college next year.

I hope you didn't think me rude sending the friend request I was just trying to gather a diverse group of friends. I'll understand if you reject my request. Thanks.

Thanks for your reply Emer, and for your kind comments. You might find it interesting that I used to live in Tuam myself as a boy.. I wonder if your Mother's family knew my Mother's family? Can you share your Mother's sister's surname so I can do some research? I also have a number of friends at NUI Galway - so if you are going there next year, perhaps I can connect you..?

Are you for real?? Who do you think you are the Facebook Police?? No wonder you have enemies when you go around treating people like this you wierdo!!

I am one of millions on facebook who display no information other than my name and had you actually read my last message I told you why. It's exactly because of freaks like you that young girls like me are unable to properly identify themselves.

You knock yourself out reporting me to Facebook you creep, like there really going to be interested that the self appointed moderator thinks there may be someone on here who isn't who they claim they are, LOL. You're just a bully, a sad bully. Did you really think I was going to give you my personal details because you bullied me???

My dad said don't put details on and I assure you I'd listen to him way before you. Your details are on here because you're a grown up with a business and you are not at the same risk as a young girl is. Now I'm not a bit scared by you I'm fckn mad, you probably beat your wife and kids and bully them too sicko! What's your problem did your manhood not develop little tiny man?????????????

Now you leave me alone or the only getting reported will be you for harassment you self righteous prick!!!!!!!!! you're a nasty character and I hope you have real bad luck. Don't contact me again.

Just the tip of a very dirty and diseased iceberg folks.. If the provocations continue, and the authorities continue NOT to take action against this devious and twisted individual, then more of the same will be posted here - including proofs of the involvement of senior authority figures, Garda Management and judges in cover-up after cover-up..

I was recently in a pub in Keel, Co Mayo (The Annexe) Where we were subjected to most ridiculous retoric by a guy who informed us he was a doctor of psychology. His name was Stephen T Manning and he lives in the Achill area of Co.Mayo.

At first I just thought he was the local pub clown but his well to do English accent made my ears prick up. He was saying that the best thing ever to happen was the destruction of the Republican spirit by the british army in the north. He ranted on about how no terrorist movement had ever defeated the british and lots more shite like that.

But by far the most putrid remark he made was that he was proud to have been involved in the training of the parachute regiment in Belfast which in his opinion had paved the way for peace and a better life for people (as he put it) "in southern Ireland".

He quite openly said, "I am shunned by some and it has been suggested that I should live back in Great Britain rather than Ireland but I believe my work with the british army and the paras in particular saved a lot of Irish lives." His remarks were met by quite a few groans but nobody really challenged him.

He left shortly after in his most british of vehicles a huge red Land Rover after having drunk 3 or 4 whiskies and 3 pints. We were then told by a local that most people are afraid of him in the area and he even boxed the head off a fella one night after attacking him from behind because the guy said his views didn't belong in the Republic. Apparently the guy was so scared he wouldn't even make a statement to Gards.

I personally feel strongly about this kind of thing, is this what 800 years and all those

The name 'McGinley' is one of the ancestral names he used in a number of viciously abusive and defamatory attacks. His mother's maiden name was McGinley - as was the maiden name of the mother of a senior Mayo politician. Birth & marriage certificates, census records and first-hand statements made by family members leave no doubt about the familial connections.

And what about this? The attack on Achill was clearly a case of 'mistaken identity' intended for Stephen Manning to try to force him to drop the civil case against George Collins. The attack and the subsequent murder has still not been properly investigated - 5 years later! Why?

<http://www.independent.ie/national-news/murdered-man-was-a-heavy-for-crime-gangs-2107615.html>

A MAN shot dead in the bathroom of a friend's apartment may have been singled out because he was "an enforcer" for criminal gangs.

Victim Seamus McMahon (41) was regarded by gardai as a "heavy", who hired out his services to gangs.

He was shot twice in the chest in the ground floor apartment in the Bothar Chroinn estate in Saltown, Dundalk, Co Louth, on Sunday night and died later from his wounds in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Drogheda.

Mr McMahon, who was from the Green Acres area of the town, was separated and the father of a 15-year-old boy.

Last month, he and another suspect from Dundalk were arrested by gardai investigating a violent break-in at a house in Achill, Co Mayo.

Two men had forced their way into the house, beat up the owner and stole a small amount of jewellery before making their getaway.

Gardai believe the culprits had chosen the wrong house and intended to carry out a "punishment attack" on another man.

Officers later arrested Mr McMahon and the second suspect a short distance from the scene of the attack.

They were detained for questioning under section 30 of the Offences Against the State Act.

They were later released without charge and a file was being prepared for the Director of Public Prosecutions to determine whether criminal charges should be brought.
