Allegations against Stephen T Manning – the truth and the facts

This simple clarifying statement has been posted here in order to counter a number of false and defamatory allegations being made against Stephen T Manning – co-founder of the Integrity Ireland Association and independent political candidate for Co. Mayo. We hope that this statement will take some of the wind out of the sails of those who would indulge in insidious mud-slinging and muck-raking in order to denigrate those who are actively trying to stand up to endemic corruption, criminality and injustice in Irish State institutions.

Allegation That STM is a criminal		roofs / Links
That STM is a criminal That STM was accused of 'inappropriate	False. Other than minor traffic offences, STM has never been charged with ANY criminal offence whatsoever. True. But the allegation was false, premeditated and contrived. It arose out of a personal dispute between	None STM wins Court case conduct' around children in 2009	soccer club manager George Collins and STM (as the local referee). STM successfully sued those making the	Referee Vindicated allegations and received a substantial settlement award. The lead accusers were George Collins (2 nd cousin to Enda Kenny) and Philip McNulty (current head of Fine Gael in Achill).	Achill 'connections'
That STM has lodged numerous	True. Also with GSOC / the Minister for Justice / the Garda Commissioner / with the Irish Human Rights	News Article complaints with An Garda Síochána	Commission / the Taoiseach / the President and with various Irish Courts. Most are connected to over 720	Letters to the authorities incidences of 'anonymous' harassment, intimidation, death threats and physical assaults since 2009 – the	A catalogue of criminality
	subsequent cover-ups and the abject failure or refusal of the Irish authorities to deal with them.	Complaint vs Gardaí & DPP
That STM was the subject of a HSE /	True. This has happened on 3 occasions to date. The first was a response to an anonymous and false allegatio
TUSLA Child Protection enquiry	sent by George and Paul Collins and connected to the 2009 Achill allegations. STM was awarded another	Gardaí & Collins at STM home €25,000 + in defamation damages for that 2 nd false allegation. The next was yet another false allegation arisin out of an incident involving Paul Collins and local Gardaí. A High Court action for criminal conspiracy between Gardaí, the Courts Service and TUSLA is currently underway. The third, again unverifiable allegation also arose in highly suspicious and contrived circumstances. STM proved in Court that TUSLA personnel and HSE solicitor	Circuit Court video report
That STM is not 'a Doctor'	were engaged in perjury and deception and harassment of his family. That HSE case was also thrown out.	CSU Diploma
	Misleading. STM has never claimed to be a medical 'Doctor' but has earned a distance-learning academic PhD in Counselling Psychology in 2003. This entitles him to use the 'Dr' prefix in formal settings.	CSO Dipiona PhD Transcript
That STM bought his degrees off the	False. STM spent a total of 5+ years in advanced studies in Alaska, New York and Japan, completing part-time	PhD Dissertation / Book internet	bachelor's level 'Pastoral Leadership' studies with Gonzaga University and residential 'Religious Education'	Submission to South Africa Ed studies in UTS New York to the Masters level – all fully accredited. He then moved to Japan and completed a	Forum distance-learning correspondence course in 'Counselling Psychology' to PhD level. After completing the coursework, questions were raised about the legitimacy of the accrediting agency, whereupon the PhD coursework was assessed by Argosy University Psychology Department and deemed to be to PhD level.
That STM never worked as a sports	False. STM has been teaching and instructing in one form or another since 1977. In the early part of his career	Ski Teaching Airline Business instructor or schoolteacher	he was a sports instructor with several internationally-recognised qualifications in skiing, personal training an	Teaching testimonials a number of adventure sports taught through German, French and Italian in mainland Europe. After earning	University in Japan his PHD he also worked in schools, colleges, businesses and universities in the US, Japan and Ireland as an	Irish Teacher-Training College
	English and Communication Skills Instructor.	Japanese Technical College
That STM never worked in religious	False. STM held two formal positions in religious ministry: (i) as a volunteer Youth Minister with the Catholic	(No longer affiliated with any ministry	Archdiocese of Anchorage, Alaska, and later (ii) as the Assistant Pastor of Anchorage Family Church.	particular religion)
That STM was in a religious cult	True. As a practicing Catholic, STM was in THE largest religious cult in the world. Thereafter, during inter-	Please note the fundamental religious work and studies, STM also had dealings with Protestants (many types), Mormons, Muslims, Jews,	difference between an education
	Unitarians, Baha'i's and Unificationists – and in the process, received a genuine religious 'education'.	and an indoctrination. See book
That STM was in the military	True. STM worked as a vehicle specialist, small arms instructor and winter sports instructor (amongst other	Military medals things) for NATO approximately 40 years ago. He worked with German, British, Norwegian, US and Danish Forces. His whole service time was spent in mainland Europe and Scandinavia in a non-combatant role.
That STM was (i) in the UK Parachute	False. Both of these allegations are concoctions by George and Paul Collins (and 'connected others') designed
Regiment and (ii) served in N. Ireland	to attract 'unwanted attentions' to STM – a tactic which has, unfortunately, been partially successful.	Topix McGinley
That STM is 'gay' and has pursued gay	False. Nonsense. Ask Mrs Manning. STM worked as a flight attendant for a short time in his youth with US-	World Airways relationships online	based World Airways but rejects this silly 'gay' stereotype. This is another false allegation based on a contrive	Men only please profile set up by Paul and George Collins to try to discredit STM during their defamation campaign.
That STM is/was profiled on a number	True. But these profiles were NOT set up by STM. Again, they were the products of the devious machinations	Sex website 1
of sex-dating websites	of the Collins brothers who were attempting to create a profile of STM as a sexual deviant.	Latter to DTE Crime Deale
That STM is a 'serial litigant'	True. Unfortunately, due to the abject failings of the policing and justice system in dealing with criminal	Letter to RTE Crime Desk incidents and other offences visited on the Manning family, STM has lawfully attempted to address matters through the Courts. The inefficiencies and convolutions of the Irish legal system however – in combination	Complaint vs Registrar & Garda Complaint vs Circuit Ct Judges with an unhealthy dose of judicial and official corruption – has ensured the prolongation of those cases.	Complaint vs High Court Judge
That STM's parents were 'Senior	False. STM's Irish parents (from Dundalk and Tuam) moved to the UK in 1966 when STM's father took up wor	Raft of false allegations
Officials in the British Home Office'	as a Prison Officer. In later years, STM's mother also did some 'night watch' duties in the local Women's Remand Centre. These jobs are both entry-level roles in the UK Prison Service.
That STM has 'invented' false sporting		Ski Teaching Personal Training
qualifications	soccer refereeing.	Soccer Refereeing
That STM is being 'hunted' by Interpol	False. Utter nonsense. Whilst STM has lived and worked in all of these locations at various times, he has no	None and police forces from Japan, USA, UK,	criminal record, allegations or charges of any sort – either historical or outstanding – except for the slanderou
Alaska and Australia	allegations being dealt with in this document.
That STM 'harassed and intimidated'	False. STM headed up a group of 117 legitimate complainants who were defrauded by Mrs Franklin in her role	Rogues Gallery 1
Rosalind Franklin and others	as a book publisher in 2006. The case was pursued diligently through 5 UK Courts in the face of truly	Private Eye Article unbelievable attacks and false counter-allegations by Mrs Franklin. Several claimants (including STM) eventually won judgements against Mrs Franklin for fraud, deception, breach of contract (and perjury).
That STM "sent 876 letters to George	A nonsensical claim from Paul Collins to try to paint STM as a serial harasser. This 'fact' was stated repeatedly	Emails from Paul Collins Collins"	in Court documents. The actual number (including letters from STM's solicitors) was 42 in a 7-year period.
That STM lodged fraudulent Court		Rogues Gallery 1
cipipe (in the LIK)	False. Two of the aforementioned 117 litigants got cold feet when Mrs Franklin went on the attack against	nogues duilery 1 claims (in the UK)	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.
That numerous allegations can be found	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual	Franklin/O'Neill attacks them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law.</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide "Politics at its Worst" 1st Ind. Mayo project
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> <li>True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks Collins Facebook attacks www.integrityireland.ie The I-I SOS Guide "Politics at its Worst" 1st Ind. Mayo project
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> <li>True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages.</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> <li>True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages.</li> <li>Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself. False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences? Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation. True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages. Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public. Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy.	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself. False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences? Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation. True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages. Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public. Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy. True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. ©	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist That STM is a 'dangerous individual' That STM is a control freak	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> <li>True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages.</li> <li>Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public.</li> <li>Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy.</li> <li>True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. <sup>(2)</sup></li> <li>Perhaps, on occasion. But sometimes that is necessary to get a complex project such as I-I off the ground.</li> </ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer         Judge flees Court
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist That STM is a 'dangerous individual'	<ul> <li>them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further.</li> <li>True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities.</li> <li>Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself.</li> <li>False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences?</li> <li>Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation.</li> <li>True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages.</li> <li>Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public.</li> <li>Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy.</li> <li>True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. <sup>(2)</sup></li> <li>Perhaps, on occasion. But sometimes that is necessary to get a complex project such as I-I off the ground. A matter of personal opinion which STM can't really argue with objectiv</li></ul>	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer         Judge flees Court
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist That STM is a 'dangerous individual' That STM is a control freak That STM is "a crap referee!"	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself. False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences? Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation. True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages. Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public. Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy. True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. © Perhaps, on occasion. But sometimes that is necessary to get a complex project such as I-I off the ground. A matter of personal opinion which STM can't really argue with objectively. Soccer refereeing is an unpopular job at the best of times. We can bu	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer         Judge flees Court         Grade 2 Licence
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist That STM is a 'dangerous individual' That STM is a control freak That STM is a 'Walter Mitty' character	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself. False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences? Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation. True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages. Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public. Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy. True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. © Perhaps, on occasion. But sometimes that is necessary to get a complex project such as I-I off the ground. A matter of personal opinion which STM can't really argue with objectively. Soccer refereeing is an unpopular job at the best of times. We can bu	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer         Judge flees Court         Grade 2 Licence         Assorted testimonials 1
That numerous allegations can be found against STM on Google That STM is a 'plant' by the State to disrupt the activist movement That STM is engaged in 'improper' or 'illegal' activity in the Courts That STM was 'thrown out' of the 1 st Independent Mayo political project That STM was 'thrown out' of the election counting centre in Castlebar That STM has caused a split in the I-I Membership in Mayo That STM is an attention-seeking opportunist That STM is a 'dangerous individual' That STM is a control freak That STM is "a crap referee!"	them personally, and they wrote to STM advising that they didn't want to be involved further. True. But they are almost all entirely untrue, contrived, unverifiable, exaggerated, or without actual substance, and are the products of the aforementioned defamation campaigns by those with alternative agendas who have come into conflict with STM because of their own criminal or corrupt activities. Do we really need to answer this one? Please see the Integrity Ireland website and The I-I SOS Guide (authored by STM) and decide for yourself. False. All STM's activities are absolutely legal and proper. It is the Irish authorities who keep breaking the law. If STM were engaged in illegal activity – then why hasn't he been charged with any offences? Misleading, but sort of true. No proper explanation was given at the time, but it now appears there was an alternative agenda and STM's burgeoning popularity was a threat to that hidden agenda. The organisers are now facing a High Court action for breach of contract, deception and defamation. True. But he shouldn't have been. He was assaulted and ejected for trying to 'approach' Enda Kenny. Those involved are facing criminal charges of assault and a possible civil claim for damages. Well - sort of true – inasmuch as STM has insisted that he maintain central control over certain key elements of the I-I project so as to ensure that the project does not lose the support of the mainstream public. Opportunist – yes. Inasmuch as we need to seize each and every opportunity to capture the attention of a largely-reluctant Irish mainstream media to put a spotlight on the Integrity Ireland project and philosophy. True. But only for the bad guys out there – and only 'dangerous' in the nicest possible way of course. © Perhaps, on occasion. But sometimes that is necessary to get a complex project such as I-I off the ground. A matter of personal opinion which STM can't really argue with objectively. Soccer refereeing is an unpopular job at the best of times. We can bu	Franklin/O'Neill attacks         Collins Facebook attacks         www.integrityireland.ie         The I-I SOS Guide         "Politics at its Worst"         1st Ind. Mayo project         Video – NOT Nazi Germany!         I-I Rules & Guidelines         Election flyer         Judge flees Court         Grade 2 Licence         Assorted testimonials 1

And who is making these false allegations? Well, apart from a number of habitual online trolls who have picked up the scent of blood.

- Rosalind Franklin (aka 'Miriam Franklin prophet of God') exposed as a fraudulent publisher by STM.
- Brendan O'Neill twin brother of Mrs Franklin, and anonymous online troll also exposed by STM.
- George Collins primary school teacher from Scotland with a murky background; 2nd cousin to Enda Kenny and the lead defendant in 3 defamation cases brought by STM since 2009. Implicated in serious criminal activity which includes cover-ups by agencies of the Irish State. Appears to have recently 'fled the jurisdiction' after failing to appear in Court to face STM over a 5-year period on the supposed basis that he was 'too sick' to attend Court. Several Irish Judges, Registrars and senior Courts Service Staff are directly implicated in multiple acts of unlawful obstruction.
- Paul Collins younger brother of George, a criminal deviant and serial harasser of women and children with a longstanding criminal record in the UK. Has threatened to kill STM but no action taken by Gardaí. Has been allowed (illegally) to pose as 'an attorney' in 18 Court hearings in the Circuit Court, the High Court and the Court of Appeal. Soon to be named in civil and criminal actions by STM for fraud, deception, perjury and harassment.
- Other persons known to STM include certain 'politically-connected' individuals who have a vested interest in defaming STM and undermining his public persona. They too are being dealt with in the High Court so we will omit their details here pending the outcome of those proceedings.
- The misguided or sycophantic supporters of certain public figures whose activities are being directly challenged by the work of Integrity Ireland.
- Agents in the pay of the State who have a vested interest in nullifying uncomfortable truths and undermining the personal standing and integrity of anyone who threatens the current status quo.

If any more such allegations come to anyone's attention – please alert Stephen at admin@integrityireland.ie, thank you.

"One by one - together - we CAN make a difference!"